DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3, 10, 11, drawn to a mixture of sulfuric acid esters, classified in class 8, subclass 588 and 591.
- II. Claims 4-6, drawn to method of making a sulfuric acid ester mixture, classified in class 558, subclass 41.
- III. Claims 7-9, drawn to a sulfuric acid ester, classified in class 558, subclass 20.
- IV. Claims 14, 15, 18, 19, drawn to a method of dyeing, classified in class 8, subclass 588, 591, 685, 917-926.
- V. Claims 16 and 17, drawn to a method of dyeing, classified in class 8, subclass 588, 591, 917-926.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product can be made by a materially different process. See instant application page 8 lines 17-19.

Art Unit: 1751

Inventions I and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the particular ester claimed in claims 7-9 is not required in the mixture of group 1 claims. The subcombination has separate utility such as a dyeing auxiliary.

Inventions I and IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the process can be practiced with the particular ester claimed in claims 7-9.

Inventions III and V are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the process can be practiced with the mixture of esters of as claimed in group I.

The other groups not specifically mentioned above are not related to each other for obvious reasons.

Art Unit: 1751

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for one Group is not required for the other Groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Claims 12,13,20 and 21 are not included in the above restriction requirement since claim 12 is improperly dependent on claim 7. Claim 7 claims a specific ester while claim 12 refers to a mixture of esters. There is no antecedent basis in claim 7 for a mixture of esters. Perhaps claim 12 was meant to be dependent on claim 1 which claims a mixture of esters. Accordingly it is not clear how to restrict these claims for examination purposes.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
